Clerk’s Popular Library Seminars are Back in 2020
Register Today!

The Collier County Clerk’s popular community seminars are back in 2020 and only weeks away. Full-time and seasonal residents are invited to join Clerk of the Circuit Court and Comptroller Crystal Kinzel and her department directors at one of three library branch locations to learn how to utilize and benefit from the wide range of services and programs offered by the Clerk, including:

- How to search for/view official records online, such as criminal and civil court records, condo declarations, deeds and other property history records;
- How to participate in upcoming foreclosure & tax deed auctions;
- How to utilize the new Self-Help Center if representing yourself in small claims, family law or landlord/tenant cases, such as evictions;
- How to register to receive risk alert notifications;
- And much more.

Don’t forget to bring your questions for the Q&A portion of the seminar.

The seminars are free and open to everyone; however, space is limited and registration is required. To register, visit the Collier Library website: www.collierlibrary.org.
